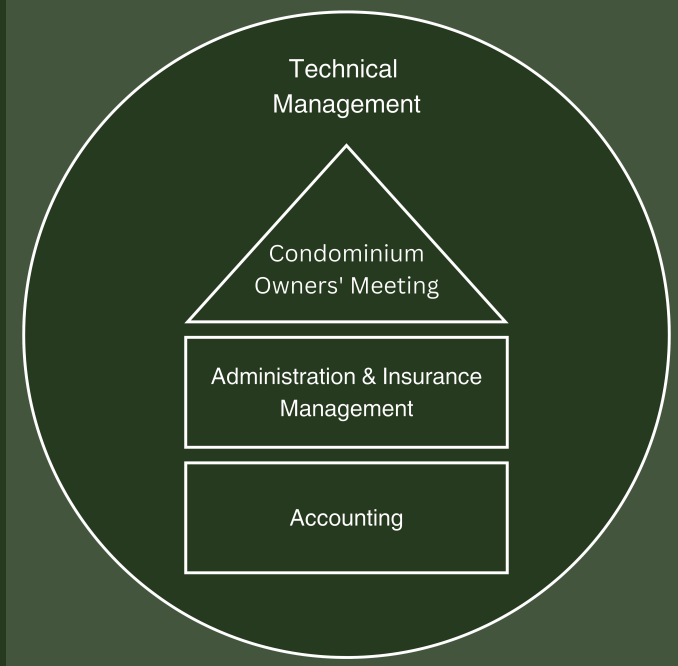
Property Management

Property management requires expertise, diligence and structure. At nk immobilien gstaad, technical support, financial management, administration and owner services ensure your property is professionally managed and maintained to preserve its value. As your local partner, we handle day-to-day matters to keep things running smoothly – even in your absence.



Our four areas of expertise

Technical support
Ongoing maintenance, coordination of repairs, renovation and skilled trade work

Financial management and accounting
Operating cost accounting, payment transactions and budget planning – transparent and reliable

Administration & insurance
Management of all documents, communication with authorities & claims, and insurance management

Condominium owner administration
Organisation of owners' meetings, implementation of resolutions & joint financial management

Private management for holiday homes

Private management is particularly beneficial if you only use your property occasionally or are away for extended periods of time. We take care of your property on site – reliably, discreetly and tailored to your needs. You benefit from a service that goes beyond the usual management services, ensuring your home is well maintained, ready for use at any time and handled with personal attention and care.

Our services at a glance:

- Regular property checks during your absence
- Coordination of maintenance work and repairs
- Organisation of cleaning before arrival or after use
- Communication with service providers and tradespeople
- Management of post, keys and access
- Invoice and payment processing on request
